

Is AI Revolutionising Careers and Employability in Ireland?

Where: Spencer Dock, National College of Ireland, Dublin

When: Thursday 24th April 2025

Time: 10am – 3pm

We invite you to attend this panel discussion which will provide an opportunity for all attendees to engage, discuss and explore innovative ideas that can shape our service delivery and best practice.

You will also have an opportunity to view the shortlisted AHECS Awards posters.

Collective intelligence discussions around the following themes: (TBC)

- Changing Employability Landscape?
- How is AI impacting the work we do?
- How can AI empower us as Career Professionals?
- AI platforms – what are good for what?
- Preparing Students and Graduates for AI Specific Careers
- Academic Integrity and ethical considerations

Keynote Speaker :

Danny Mizra, Lead Consultant of Talent Team Coventry University

Panel Members:

Rebecca Roper, Expert Advisor for Teaching and Learning, HEA: Student Success

Oscar Lyons, Head of Virtual Reality, Cappfinity

Itinerary:

10am - 10.55am - Registration, tea/coffee and pastries on arrival, and opportunity to network with colleagues and vendors

11.00am - Welcome address

11.10am – 11.45am - Poster viewing and networking

11.45am – 1.15pm – Keynote and panel discussion

1.15pm – 2pm - Networking lunch

2pm – 3pm - Round table collective intelligence discussions and close

Please note attendance is by advance registration only.